

CHAPTER SCHEME

The present study of 'Analysis of Working Capital Management in M/s Ratna Sea Foods Ratnagiri under LERMS' is organized in five chapters.

Chapter I deals with the entire profile of M/s Ratna Sea Foods Ratnagiri. It covers the location and establishment of the unit. Its growth development and integration, its financial structure, and its Working Capital requirements.

Chapter II is related with the theoretical background of the study. It includes the Concept of working capital, factors influencing working capital and cyclical variation in it, Management procedures for working capital requirements and the standards of working capital management in the industry.

Chapter III is the research design. it covers the subject of study, methodology adopted, hypothesis and hypothesis testing.

Chapter IV is analysis, interpretation and presentation of the data in tabular and graphical forms.

Chapter V gives the conclusions, observations and the recommendations.