

STATEMENT-I

The present work is based on the discovery of facts which are new for Solanaceous plants tobacco and brinjal. So far few attempts have been made to investigate anatomical changes, organic constituents, mineral nutrition under Orobanche infection in tobacco and brinjal. Therefore, this work is of original type. This work has not been previously submitted for the award of any Degree to any institute.

(Dr. A.N. Thite)

Guide

(Miss G.V. Patil)

Candidate

STATEMENT-II

The work carried out here is new to the existing knowledge and is original in nature. This has not been submitted for the award of Master of Philosophy or any other degree in Botany in other University. The write up is prepared after extensive references and consultation of current journals, review articles, reference books and monographs. They are listed under the title 'Bibliography'. An attempt has been made to keep references as up-to-date as possible.

(Dr. A.N. Thite)

Guide

(Miss G.V. Patil)

Candidate