

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present work is the outcome of valuable guidance, help and co-operation extended by my teachers, friends and many dignitaries. I would like to put on record my deep sense of gratitude to the following individuals.

The first and for the most to whom I owe a lot is my respected teacher and guide Dr. A. A. Dange, who not only guided me but also inspired me and encouraged me in each and every step while preparing this work. This formal acknowledgement is an inadequate expression of my gratitude to him.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. R. R. Doshi, Professor and Head of the Department of Economics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his co-operation and words of encouragement.

I extend my sincere gratitude to my teacher Shri R. G. Dandage, for his help in using the necessary statistical tools while preparing this dissertation work.

It is my duty to express my sense of gratitude to my teachers Dr. J. F. Patil, Dr. V. B. Jugale, Shri P. N. Gavade and Shri V. B. Kakade for their kind co-operation and encouragement.

I would like to record my deep sense of gratitude to my teacher Shri P. D. Gadiyappanavar, for his constant stimulation, encouragement and inspiration.

I am immensely grateful to the Librarian, Barr. Balasaheb Khardekar Library, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for extending me necessary library facilities required in the preparation of this work. I am profoundly grateful to Shri Sakha Kalal, Librarian, D. R. K. College of Commerce, Kolhapur for making use of their Periodical Section which has helped me a lot in the necessary secondary data collection.

My major debt of gratitude however is to my parents and my grandma who have always been the constant source of inspiration, motivation and encouragement for me throughout the completion of this work.

I wish to thank Shri A. N. Sabale and Shri Z. M. Shaikh for their timely help and co-operation in the completion of this dissertation work.

My thanks are due to Miss. Madhavi, Miss. Sumati, Miss. Vandana, Mrs. Shanta Halmaniyar and Mrs. Neera Dange for their help and encouragement throughout the preparation of this work.

Finally, Mrs. S. M. Patil also deserves my thanks for conscientious and flawless typing of this dissertation work.
