

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my revered guide Prof. (Dr.) M.S. Sonar, the Head of the Department of Education, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for having given me encouragement and unerring guidance in the completion of this work. But for his help this dissertation should not have seen light of the day.

I offer my special thanks to the Librarian of the University of Bombay who had extended heartiest cooperation in making available the very old and rare collections of the annual reports of the Bombay Native Education Society, the Board of Education, Bombay and the Director of Public Instruction, Bombay. My thanks are also due to the Director of the Archive and Archeology Department, Maharashtra State, Bombay for having permitted me to use the library record room and to take the extracts of the old records. I am also thankful to the Librarian, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and various authorities for having given me help in collection of the data.

I also express my grateful thanks to Principal Dr. S.R. Suryawanshi for having helped me in completion of my work in time. I thank Shri Kawade, who in spite of his varied activities, typed this dissertation in such commendable form.

(P.A. Sarawade)