APPENDIX- 2

Boy's Song

Where the pools are bright and deep,
Where the grey trout trout lises asleep,
Up the river and over the lea,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Where the black bird sings the latest,
Where the hawthorn blwans the sweetest,
Where the nestlings chirp and flee,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Where the mowers mow the eleanest,
Where the hay lies thick and greenest,
There to track the home ward bee,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Where the hazel bank is steepest,
Where the shadow falls the deepest,
Where the clustering nuts fall free,
That's the way for Billy and me.

Why the boys shoud drive away,
Litte sweet maidens from the play,
Or love to banter and fight so well,
That's the thing I never could tell,

But this I know, I love to play.
Through the meadow, among the hay,
Up the water and over the lea,
That's the way for Billy and me.
