ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

For some years my ambition for research remained bolted until at last my name was selected for M.Phil. degree course and it has enthused ! It has flowered !! I have sincerely endeavored to put in my labour in this research sponsored by U.G.C. and under renowned and dextrous guide Dr. P.D. Chavan. This dissertation is the outcome of this all I, therefore express my deep indebtedness to the Director U.G.C. as well as to Dr. P.D. Chavan of the Botany department, Shivaji University. The entire department is of immense help to me and Dr. Hegde, Dr. M.S. Patil, Dr. B.A. Karadge had all extended me their precious help.

While pursuing this work I got substantial help from the Principal A.L. Jade of Gogate Jogalekar College, Ratnagiri and the entire Botany department under him.

Similarly my thanks are due to Dr. Marathe of Agriculture College, Kolhapur and his colleagues there.

While compiling this research work I have taken substantial help from Shri. Dilip Kelkar (Photographer), Prof. R.A. Sathe (for computer Graphics), R.R. Sathe for typing, Mr. Shrikrishna Pandit for computerised printing, and Mr. and Mrs. Khot for their personal help.

Also this work is endowed with liberal help from my friends and colleagues both at Ratnagiri and Kolhapur. I extend to them all my warmest thanks for their courtesy.

Finally, I express my deep sence of gratitude to my parents and other family members.
