

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to respected Prof. Chandrashekhar Jahagirdar, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, under whose guidance I completed this dissertation. His helpful criticism and profound knowledge have guided me at every stage of my research. I thank him for the kindness and patience that I received from him during my idle progress.

This work would not have been possible without the self-less assistance offered by my dear friends Mr. Meghnad Joshi and Mr. Ashutosh Potdar. I must thank them for their timely help with the reference and proofreading.

I am also thankful to teaching and non-teaching staff of Department of English and entire staff of Bar. Balasaheb Khardekar Library, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for their co-operation.

My parents Abhaykumar and Shailaja and my sister Shubhangi have always provided me with unconditional love, support and encouragement during the times of tensions and obstacles. I cherish their efforts to make me complete this dissertation.

Once again, I express my sincere gratitude to all these people who helped me in materializing this research work. I owe debt to all of them. Thank you.
