This dissertation was undertaken and completed under the supervision of Dr.R.M. Badode, Department of English, Venutai Chavan College, Karad. With his rich critical insight, patient guidance and keen interest, Dr. Badode was a great source of encouragement at every stage of the work. This formal acknowledgement, I am sure, is an inadequate expression of my sense of gratitude to him.

I sincerely thank Principal Suhas Salunkhe and Principal Bapusaheb Mane of Arts and Commerce College, Kadepur, for their kind co-operation and inspiration they gave me from the beginning of my work. I am very much thankful to Principal P.T. Thorat and Principal B.N.Kalekar of Venutai Chavan College, Karad.

I am very much indebted to Shanta Gokhale the author of Rita Velinkar, who co-operated me by giving me an opportunity to interview her in details. My sincere thanks to Prof. C.J. Jahagirdar, the Head of the Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for his encouragement in the pursuit of this project.

I would like to thank also the Librarians of Venutai Chavan College, Karad, and Arts and Commerce College, Kadepur for extending their library facilities to me in connection with this research project.

My warm thanks to the members of English Department, especially Mrs. V.G. Langade and Dr.P.A. Attar of Venutai Chavan College, Karad. I must express my feelings of thanks to all my staff members, particularly Dr. Baburao Gurav, Shri. B.A. Mistri, Shri.B.D. Sagare, Shri. L.G. Jadhav, Shri. H.G. Sapkal, of Arts and College, Kadepur.

I also thank Shri.S.N. Panhale and Shri.N.B. Inamdar for their timely co-operation in typing the dissertation. My warm thanks to Mrs.Annapurna Badode for her affectionate hospitality during the course of research.

It is necessary to express my feelings of thanks to my wife Jayashri and all other family members. I wish to express my feelings of gratitude for all of them who helped me directly or indirectly in the dissertation work.
