

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my grateful thanks to my research guide Dr.P.B.Deshpande, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for his able and valuable guidance, continued care and constant encouragement in completing this dissertation entitled "A CRITICAL STUDY OF ANTHONY POWELL'S TRILOGY 'SPRING'. I am very much thankful to Dr.C.J.Jahagirdar, Professor and Head, and Dr.S.V.Shastrri, Professor and the then Head, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. It is my solemn duty to thank Dr.S.R.Kulkarni, Dr.Toro, Bodas Sir, Principal Dr.Nirmale and late Dr.B.A.Patil who encouraged me in doing M.Phil. I gratefully thank the authorities of the British Council Library, Pune; the British Council Library, Bombay and the Willingdon College Library who provided me exclusive library facilities due to which alone I could complete this work.

I am very much grateful to my parents and brother who took great pains to educate me. I thank my wife who bore every kind of inconvenience during the period of my work. My acknowledgement would be incomplete unless I thank my father-in-law and mother-in-law who provided me money in the nick of time. My friend V. G. Kulkarni and his colleagues completed the work of typewriting expeditiously, I thank them.
