

Annexure - I
Questionnaire for the brick kiln owners

1. Name Age
Education Other occupation
2. Since how long you are in this profession? Do you have registered the brick kiln? Yes/ No If yes, where?
3. Is there any rule and regulations are there for the brick kilns? Are you aware of it?
Govt./ ZP/ KMC/ Gram panchayat
4. From where you get the clay for the bricks?
a) Riverside b) Agricultural c) Both d) Other
5. Do you mixes the clay with the other when manufacturing the bricks? If yes, what?
6. Generally how long this brick making lasts for in the year?
7. What is the turn over of the bricks?
8. What is the average size of the brick?
Length Width Height
9. What is the average size of raw the brick?
Length Width Height
10. Do you purchase the soil? Yes/No
From where Price
11. How much clay is required for making one lack bricks?
12. Do you getting the permission for the clay? Yes/No
If yes, from where?
13. What fuel do you use for the burning the bricks?
a) Coal b) Saw dust c) Baggass d) Kerosene/Diesel e) Wood

14. What is the percentage of breakage during the manufacturing the bricks (per thousand bricks)?
15. What do you do of broken bricks?
16. Are you aware of river side fertile soil can not be reused, once it is used for the bricks? Yes/No
17. Are you aware of brick kilns are polluting the air? Yes/No
18. Which is the best clay for making good quality bricks? Why?
19. Is there any increasing demand for the clay bricks? Yes/No
20. What is your opinion about cement bricks?
21. What is your opinion about government's new policy about mixing of 25% fly ash in the bricks?
22. Is there any other option for the clay bricks? Yes/No
If yes what?
23. Do you consider the pollution control board's rules and regulation while registering the brick kiln?
24. From where you get the required water for the brick production? How many liter or tanker?
25. Where do you sell these bricks?
26. According to you what will be the good option for making the bricks to mix with the clay
