I am sure Goddess Tulja Bhavani blessed me with an opportunity to write a brief dissertation about her and Tuljapur.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to U.G.C. the Management and Principal of Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya Latur, for the grant of scholarship and study leave to complete the course of M.Phil.

I am particularly grateful to my guide Dr.S.B. Deshmukh, Reader, Department of Geography, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for his valuable and inspiring guidance in this work.

I am also grateful to Dr.P.W.Deshmukh, Professor, and Head of the Department of Geography and staff of the Department of Geography for their help.

I must acknowledge the help and encouragement received from Prof.K.B.Mane and my colleagues and friends.

I am grateful to all those officials particularly Shri Anil Pawar, Collector (Osmanabad district), Shri Raja-Bhau Dixit, Manager, Temple Trust, Tuljapur, Shri Kalyanrao Kadam (Pujari), Shri B.D.Kulkarni (C.O.Municipal Council),

Shri Ram Khot, Shri Krishna Maharaj, Shri Satish Deshmukh, Shri R.A.Jadhav, Shri Kolekar, Shri Suhas Joshi, Shri R.S. Pawar, Prof.U.A.Gaulkar and others who have helped me in several ways by co-operating in collection of data and other work.

I am also thankful to Shri H.M.Jagtap for his cartographic assistance, Shri R.K.Nikam for neat typing and Shri L.J.Rajput for official co-operation.

In this work, I cannot ignore the active co-operation and help of my family members. My wife Sow.Kausalya has always been a source of inspiration for me. All her energy and efficiency alive for this work. I must acknowledge my children Chi.Swati and Chi.Sangram and my fater Dada because of the support received from them.

Lastly, I record my deep gratitude to my all well wishers.
