

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my first and foremost privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. C.K.Bhaskare, for his scholarly guidance and constant encouragement during the tenure of this study.

I am thankful to the Head, Department of Chemistry for giving an opportunity to work in the department and to all the staff members for their help and timely tips.

I am deeply indebted to the Mayor, Kolhapur Municipal Corporation, Mr. G.R.Nageshkar, Assistant Commissioner and Mr. Dinesh Perulkar and all the Public Health Department personnel for their cooperation and assistance in providing necessary data. I am also thankful to personnel of University Scientific Instrumentation Centre for their help in fabricating the equipments.

I am grateful to U.G.C. for granting me a year's study tenure, and to Dayanand Education Society, Latur for providing necessary help. I am also indebted to Mr. K.H.Purohit, Principal, Dr.G.M.Deshmukh, Vice-Principal and all my colleagues for their constant encouragement during my study.

I thank all those friends who helped directly or indirectly in my venture.
