

A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T

I take this opportunity to express my feelings of gratitude towards the various authorities, dignatories and persons, who not only inspired me in submitting this dissertation as a partial fulfilment of M. Phil. Degree in Social Work, but also extended their valuable guidance, co-operation and suggestions.

I consider myself to be fortunate to have the guidance of Dr. A. D. Madgulkar . I wish to convey my deep sense of gratitude to him for his valuable advice, constant encouragement, constructive criticism, sustained interest and scholarly guidance right from the suggestion of the topic upto the completion of the manuscript.

I am thankful to Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director, Dr. P. S. Rao, Principal, Dr. A. D. Madgulkar, Head of Social Work for providing me the necessary academic facilities.

I express my gratitude to the faculty members especially, Prof. (Miss) Savita Joshi, Prof. S. V. Shirol, Dr. (Mrs.) Pandit, Dr. Cherian who helped me directly or indirectly in several ways.

I must express my deep sense of love and gratitude to my brothers, Prof. Prakash and Mr. Ramu, Sisters Sumitra and Sumangala who have been constant source of inspiration throughout my life in my academic life.

I am thankful to Miss Anita K. Kamate, who encouraged me and gave valuable support during my research work. I am greatly indebted to my friend Mr. Ramachandra Reddy, who helped me to great extent and co-operated in brotherly manner.

My thanks are also due to all staff members of CSCIBER, office and library staff who have helped me in all ways during my stay at the institute.

It is my pleasant duty to thank my friends Mr. Ramesh Shetty, Mr. Rajanna and room partners Mr. Suresh Kumar Mengade and Mr. Ananda.

Lastly, and most importantly, my sincere thanks are due to all my respondents who patiently co-operated and gave every possible information to me, without which this work would not have taken shape.
