

L I S T   O F   T A B L E S

TABLE NO.	TITLE	PAGE
CHAPTER I
I.1	Total percentage of agricultural labours with total labour in India	21A
I.2	Classification of workers in rural India (1961-81)	21B
I.3	Female work participation rate and its proportion in total work force	39
CHAPTER IV
IV.1	Classification of female, male and agricultural labour	71
CHAPTER V
I.1	Age composition of the respondents	95
I.2	Caste composition of the respondents	96
I.3	Marital status of the respondents	97
I.4	Migration status of the respondents	98
I.5	Educational status of the respondents	99
I.6	Age of respondents and education	100
I.7	Family size of the respondents	102
I.8	Family type of the respondents	103
I.9	Earning members in respondents family	104
I.10	Occupation of the respondent's husband	105

II.1	Caste of the respondents and nature of house	108
II.2	Caste of the respondents and the nature of housing condition	109
II.3	Location of the respondent's house	111
II.4	Electrification of respondent's house	112
II.5	Sources of potable water	113
II.6	Water availability in all seasons	114
II.7	Respondents bathroom condition	115
II.8	Toilet facilities available to respondents	116
II.9	Possession of land of the respondents	117
III.1	Nature of work of the respondents	120
III.2	Duration of work hours in different seasons	121
III.3	Alternative employment during slack season	122
III.4	Availability of employment in whole year	123
III.5	Total days of employment in a whole year	124
III.6	Daily wages of the respondents	125
III.7	Method of wage payment of the respondents	126
III.8	Usage of implements for self employment	127
III.9	Age of the respondents and employment available in a year	128
III.10	Respondent opinion about land owners	130
III.11	Satisfaction of the respondents with their work	131
III.12	Present position of the respondents	132
III.13	Willingness of respondents to do other job than agriculture	133
III.14	Reasons for willingness to follow other job besides agriculture	134

IV.1	Categorisation of female agricultural labour	137
IV.2	Duration of job with present employer	138
IV.3	Duration of job contract with present employer	139
IV.4	Nature of the contract of the respondents	140
IV.5	Reasons for remaining attached	141
IV.6	Employer's permission to respondent to work elsewhere	142
IV.7	Whether respondent can leave present job as per his wish	143
IV.8	Condition of repayment of loan taken by the respondents	144
IV.9	Possibility of leaving after repayment of loan	145
IV.10	Performance of household duties in employer's house	146
IV.11	Whether the contract to work is binding on family members	147
V.1	Annual income of the respondents	150
V.2	Total family income of the respondents	151
V.3	Respondents income and nature of possession of house	152
V.4	Per capita income of the family	153
V.5	Respondents income from agricultural work	155
V.6	Sources of income from farm	157
V.7	Sources of income from non-agriculture	158
V.8	Monthly average expenditure in respondents family	159A
V.9	Income and expenditure of the respondents per month	159
V.10	Saving of respondents	162
V.11	Regularity of respondent's savings	163
V.12	Reason for saving	164
V.13	Annual income and saving of the respondents	165
V.14	Age of the respondents and saving	166
V.15	Loan taken by the respondents from the bank	168

V.16	Amount borrowed as loan by respondents	169
V.17	Rate of interest paid on loan	170
V.18	Indebtedness of the respondents	171
V.19	Age of the respondents and their debt	172
V.20	Respondents yearly employed days and debt	174
V.21	Number of earning members in a family and debt	175
V.22	Family income and family debt	176
V.23	Reason for family debt	178
V.24	Sources of borrowing	179
V.25	Reasons for indebtedness	180
V.26	Extent of indebtedness of the respondents	181
V.27	Caste and indebtedness	182
VI.1	Availability of time to look after children	184
VI.2	Time spent in managing household work	185
VI.3	Persons helping in domestic work	186
VI.4	Effect of respondent's work on domestic work	188
VI.5	Feeling of respondent regarding staying as housewife rather than at job	189
VI.6	Reasons for working on job	190
VI.7	Respondents opinion regarding sufficiency of present income	191
VI.8	Opinion of family members about respondent's work	192
VI.9	Whether respondent's work has helped in economic independence	193
VI.10	Respondent's opinion about children following same Occupation	194

VI.11	Opinion of respondent for having more children for enhancing family income	195
VI.12	Opinion about status of working women	196
VI.13	Caste of the respondents and their feeling about women status in society	197
VI.14	Respondent's education and their opinion about the status of working women	198
VI.15	Husband's opinion about respondent's work	199
VII.1	Respondents age and the age of their intimate friends	201
VII.2	Educational status of the respondents and of their intimate friends	203
VII.3	Respondents caste and occupation of their intimate friends	205
VII.4	Respondents caste and caste of their intimate friends	207
VII.5	Respondents activities in spare time	209
VIII.1	Respondents agreement towards whether women should work only if income is insufficient	211
VIII.2	Respondents agreement towards women working outside home	212
VIII.3	Respondents agreement towards children education	213
VIII.4	Respondents annual income and their opinion about educating children	214
VIII.5	Respondents education and their opinion about educating children	215
VIII.6	Respondents attitude towards joint family gives better protection to women and children	216

VIII.7	Respondent's caste and their opinion regarding protection of women and children in joint family	217
VIII.8	Respondents age and opinion regarding protection for children and women in joint family	218
VIII.9	Respondents agreement towards nuclear family have greater independence and status for women	220
VIII.10	Respondents attitude regarding non-existence of divorce system	221
VIII.11	Respondents education and opinion about divorce system	222
VIII.12	Respondents age and agreement regarding divorce system	223
VIII.13	Respondents attitude towards marrying within own caste	224
VIII.14	Respondents attitude towards intercaste marriage	225
VIII.15	Respondents caste and opinion about intercaste marriage	226
VIII.16	Respondents education and agreement regarding intercaste marriage	227
VIII.17	Respondents age and agreement regarding intercaste marriage	229
VIII.18	Respondents attitude towards education of women	230
VIII.19	Respondents annual income and attitude towards women education
VIII.20	Respondents caste and attitude towards education of women	232