

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

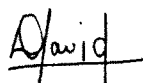

A dissertation is a combined effort. Therefore, I take the privilege to sincerely acknowledge the cooperation rendered by different persons in the study endeavour.

I owe a very special debt of gratitude to Dr. A. D. Madgulkar, my guide and Head of the Department of Social Work for his abysmal and excellent guidance; perseverance in going through the script; and enabling me to develop better insight in Research Methodology and Substantial Area of the study, through his invaluable critical suggestions and comments.

I am immensely thankful to Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director and Dr. P.S. Rao, Principal, for providing necessary academic facilities.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. V. N. Talitayya, Works Manager; executives and staff of the personnel department and all the respondents of M/s Firth(India)Steel Company Ltd. for their valuable and kind cooperation to pursue the study.

I tender my thanks to Jyoti, Mona, Sunita, Akalpita, Geeta, Dakshaini, my family members and others for their direct or indirect help.

Hemlata David