

LIST OF TABLES.

- 1) A table shows age of the respondents
- 2) A table shows religion and castewise distribution of the respondents.
- 3) A table shows occupation of the respondents husbands.
- 4) A table shows earning members in respondents families.
- 5) A table shows total family income (Annual) of the respondents.
- 6) A table shows level of education of the respondents.
- 7) A table shows distribution of respondents by marital status.
- 8) A table shows nature of the family.
- 9) A table shows size of the family.
- 10) A table shows types of houses of the respondents.
- 11) A table shows sources of potable water.
- 12) A table shows water availability in all seasons.
- 13) A table shows toilet facility available to respondents.
- 14) A table shows respondents' bathroom condition.
- 15) A table shows electrification of the respondents houses
- 16) A table shows cooking facilities of the respondents.

- 17) A table shows wheather the respondents used grinding stone or mixer.
- 18) A table shows respondents have cattle in their houses or not.
- 19) A table shows the houses where the respondents keep their the cattle are Traditional or modern.
- 20) A table shows the ways through which respondents face health emergencies.
- 21) A table shows wheather the respondents get medical help at time of maternity.
- 22) A table shows the sources of getting information about family planning.
- 23) A table shows the methods of family planning which respondents practised.
- 24) A table shows wheather the respondents have agricultural field or not.
- 24) A table shows wheather the respondents work on their own agricultural field or not.
- 26) A table shows type of work which the respondents do in the agricultural fields.

- 27) A table shows possession of land of the respondents.
- 28) A table shows whether the respondents used their own implements for agricultural work or not.
- 29) A table shows castewise and materialwise distribution.
- 30) A table shows whether the respondents see television or not.
- 31) A table shows whether the respondents read newspapers or not.
