LIST OF TABLES

1) Table - 1 Showing the Age and sex wise distribution of the Respondent's.
2) Table -2 Showing the distribution of the medium of the Respondent's school.
3) Table - 3. Showing the standard wise distribution of the Respondent studying.
4) Table - 4 Showing the Religion wise distribution of the Respondent children.
5) Table - 5 Showing the Caste - wise distribution of the Respondent children.
6) Table - 6 Showing the distributions of the Respondent's according to their mother - tongue.
7) Table - 7 Showing the Educational Status of the parents of the Respondent's.
8) Table -8 Showing the Occupation wise distribution of the Respondent's Parents.
9) Table - 9 Showing the Monthly Income Distribution of the Parents of the Respondent children.
10) Table - 10 Showing the Different Size of Television Sets Owned by the Parents of the Respondent's.
11) Table - 11 Showing the Classification of the type of television set owned..
12) Table - 12 Showing information about the purchase of television sets.
13) Table - 13 Showing the availability of private channels in the families of the Respondent .
14) Table - 14 Showing information about the viewers choice, utility of channels.
15) Table -15 Showing the distribution of the Respondent's choice of programmes.
16) Table - 16 Showing the distribution of the respondent's accord.ng to their choice of the languages of the programones
17) Table - 17 Showing the restriction put on the children for viewing particular television programmes
18) Table - 18 Showing the viewers opinion regarding television programmes and their studies.
19) Table - 19 Showing the distribution of the viewers according to theirs opinions on personality development through television.
20) Table -20 Showing the distribution of the viewers according to their opinion on formation of good and bad habits due to television.
21) Table - 21 Showing the distribution of the respondent's according to their preparation of time table for watching television.
22) Table -22 Showing the distribution of the respondent's according to the time spent in watching television.
23) Table - 23 Showing the distribution of viewers participating in competitions due to encouragement of television programmes.
24) Table - 24 Showing the impact of television of the respondent regarding the fashion and fad.
25) Table - 25 Showing the impact of the characters shown in the television programmes on children.
26) Table - 26 Showing the serious impact of serials and advertisements shown on television.
27) Table - 27 Showing the impact of sexual programmes on the minds of the respondent's age groupwise.
28) Table - 28 Showing the impact of drug scenes on the children respondent's.
29) Table - 29 Showing the impact of rebelling scenes on the minds of the respondent's.
30) Table - 30 Showing the impact of life styles of the characters on the minds of the respondent's.
31) Table - 31 Showing the impact of etiquettes and manners on the minds of the respondent's.
32) Table - 32 Showing the regularity and punctuality of the respondent children to school.
33) Table - 33 Showing impact of terror scenes / programmes on the minds of the respondent's.
34) Table - 34 Showing the development of general knowledge of the respondent's .
35) Table - 35 Showing the worries of the parents of the respondent for increasing their habits of watching television.
36) Table - 36 Showing whether the respondent's are becoming active due to television..
37) Table - 37 Showing whether the respondent's save pocket money due to television.
38) Table - 38 Showing the impact of television on the eye sight of the respondent children.
39) Table - 39 Showing the impact of television on family discipline.
40) Table - 40 Showing the impact of television on the indoor and outdoor games and play of the respondent.
41) Table - 41 Showing the impact of television on the habit of reading and writing.
42) Table -42 Showing the impact of family interaction due to television.
43) Table - 43 Showing whether the respondent's spend time with their neighbours.
44) Table - 44 Showing the impact of western culture on the minds of the respondent's due to television.
45) Table - 45 Showing the impact of television on the outlook of the respondent's.
46) Table - 46 Showing the impact of television on the concept and system of home for the aged.
47) Table - 47 Showing the impact of television in removing caste feelings from the minds of the respondent's.
48) Table - 48 Showing the impact of television in reducing the superstition and blind faith from the minds of the children.
49) Table - 49 Showing the impact of television towards progress or regress.
50) Table - 50 Showing the advantages and disadvantages of watching television programmes.
