

Acknowledgment

Co-operation is the most important factor behind every successful work. It is true in the contest of my work also. For the completion of this dissertation, I received valuable help and encouragement from many persons. It is my duty to express my gratitude to all of them.

First of all I have to thank my guide Dr. J. B. Ambekar (Yadav) Professor of Sociology, Shivaji University, and Kolhapur. I am grateful for his guidance, help and encouragement at every stage in work. He always welcomed me whenever i went to him for guidance, discussion and for the solution of my difficulties. He recently observed and checked my writing to give it good shape. I feel words are not sufficient to express my feelings towards him.

I am also grateful to Professors Dr. R. B. Patil, Dr. R. N. Salve Dr. S. A. Salunkhe Head, Department of Sociology and D. Shrikant all from the Department of Sociology for their help in my work.

I must record my thanks to library staff of the Balasaheb Khardekar library Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

I am grateful to Dr. P. B. Draxe Reader Dr. Ghali College, Gadhinglaj. I am also grateful to Mr. B. B. Waghmode Head, Department of Sociology Ghali Collage, Gadhinglaj for the important by him about systematic writing of references.

I am grateful to my friend Shri. C. D. Gurav teacher in New English School Abdullat. He advised me for M. Phil Degree.

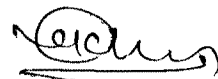

I am indebted to my parents, my mother and my elder brother Shankar and my friends especially Mr. Anand Gadiwad, Rakesh Gadkari, Manoj Borgalli, Mallkarjun Gurav, Shamrao Gheji, Sidgonda Patil, Sachin Patil, Santosh Nilakhe and Somgonda Patil all of whom helped me in their own way in making my task easy. The Gramsevak, Talathi and Sarpanch and all my peasant's respondents helped me to complete my research work.

I am also thankful to my uncle Shri Sidgonda Patil whose help would always be remembered by me.
