

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is indeed a great pleasure for me to have been closely associated and worked under the inspiring guidance of Dr. Sarjerao A. Salunkhe, Reader, Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, under whose keen supervision, I have been able to prepare this dissertation. His constant interest, encouragement, valuable guidance and suggestions have made it possible for me to complete this piece of work. I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude and honour for his tireless efforts and valuable assistance in the course of preparing the present work.

I must record my sincere thanks and respect to Dr. S. N. Pawar, Professor and Head of Department of Sociology, Shivaji University Kolhapur, for his ever friendly atmosphere and constant encouragement, academic discussions and timely suggestions which have enabled me to complete this research work.

I am exceedingly grateful to the other members of the staff of the Department of Sociology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Dr. J. B. Ambekar, Reader and Chairman of M. Phil. course in the department, Dr. R. B. Patil Reader, Dr. M. M. Awate, Reader, Dr. S. M. Dahiwale, Reader and Dr. D. Shrikant, lecturer, for their cooperation and encouragement while preparing this dissertation.

I am thankful to Mrs. Wilkista Onsando, [Former MYWO, National Chairman] and Mrs. Claire Omangan [former Kisii MYWO, Chairman] for their willing cooperation and assistance during the period of data collection. My sincere thanks also go to all the leaders and members of the Women's Groups covered under the present study , for their positive attitude and cooperation they extended to me in the course of data collection.

I am deeply indebted to my Mother , Mrs. Rebecca M. Isaboke, for her love , tender care, endurance and financial support through my eight year study in the Shivaji University ,Kolhapur. I register my heartfelt appreciation and gratitude to all my brothers . The Late Winston Bundi Isaboke ,Former Senior Assistant Commissioner of Police [Kenya] and Commandant of Kenya Airport Police Unit [KAPU], whose untimely death occurred barely 4 days [25.4.95] after my arrival in Kenya for the present research work, Pastor Isaac Mairura, Department of Theology and Religious Studies [University of Eastern Africa, Baraton], Mark M. Isaboke [Nyanchwa College], Robert O. Isaboke [Garissa]; the Late James Ratembo Isaboke whom the cruel death took away from us [1990], during my T. Y. B. A. course and Wilfred S. Isaboke [Mosocho], for their constant inspiration, encouragement and financial assistance towards the completion of this precious work. Thanks to my sisters : Esther Kemunto, Elizabeth Moraa and Jane Kerubo and my sisters-in-law Aska, Leah, Marcellah, Jerotich , Dorcas and Damaris. I am grateful to all my nephews and nieces for their sincere wishes and prayers for me.

With great pleasure , I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to my would-be wife, Jane Kerubo Arama , School of Humanities and Social Sciences [University of Eastern Africa, Baraton] for her deep concern , continuous moral and financial assistance towards ^{the} completion of this dissertation.

Much thanks to George Nyamunga [M.Sc. Agrochemicals Department], Okirigiti Ogesanda [L. L. B. New Law Collegel], Alfred Manono [M. B. A. K. I. T. Collegel], Chris Kenyariri [L. L. B. Shahaji Law Collegel], Charles Ariga [B. A. Islampur] and Cliveland Okemwa [B. A. D. D. Shinde Collegel] for their good company , cooperation and help in the course of completing the present research work.

My special thanks ^{so} to my long time friend Dr. S. S. Vadkar , Lecturer, Department of Commerce and Management [SIBER]. Last but not least , I am extremely grateful to Mr. Ravindra Sathe , for his expeditious, neat and accurate typing of this dissertation.

Shivaji University
Kolhapur 416 004.

Nyataya P. I. K.