

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

While presenting the dissertation, I am very much happy to acknowledge Dr. D. T. Shirke, whose constant encouragement and inspiring guidance has enabled me to complete my dissertation.

I am grateful to Dr. R. N. Rattihalli, Head, Department of Statistics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for providing me the necessary facilities and valuable suggestions.

I am indebted to Dr. S. R. Kulkarni, Dr. (Mrs.) H.V. Kulkarni, Mr. S. B. Mahadik for their guidance and cooperation.

I remember very well the best company and help of Mr. B. B. Patkure, Mr. D. N. Kashid, Mr. H. S. Patil, Miss Ashwini Mane and my other department colleagues. Also I remember company and help of past and present research fellow of the department. I would like to thank non-teaching staff of the department for their help.

I take this opportunity to thank University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for awarding me a Teacher Fellowship under the Faculty Improvement Program.

I am thankful to Principal P. B. Chavan, Padmbhooshan Dr. Vasantraodada Patil Mahavidyalaya, Tasgaon, Dist : Sangli for encouraging me from time to time.

The sight inspired me throughout my educational career is due to my mother and father. They encouraged throughout my educational career. I have no words to express my gratitude towards them.

It is my obligation to thank my wife Mrs. Anita, parents and brothers for encouragement and patience throughout my study. Last but not least thanks are due to my loving kids son Pankaj, daughters Pallavi and Shnehal.
