"Comparative study of "Treatment of Feminist Themes in the Plays of Ibsen and P.K. Atre", is a literary research for the Degree of M.Phil. A comparative study is attempted here in respect of H. Ibsen's 'A Doll's House' and Atre's 'GHARABAHER'.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. M.D. Hatkanangalekar under whose guidance and supervision I completed this work. I am equally indebted to my teachers, Shri V. N. Deshpande, Shri Kenvadkar and Shri K.V. Apte who readily agreed to discuss with me the varied problems of this research.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to the Principal of Willingdon College for granting me permission to undertake this study.

It is my first duty to express deep sense of gratitude to Principal Shri N. N. Relekar who allowed me to register my name as a Research Student and gave necessary guidance and tried to solve the difficulties and provided the necessary co-operation.

I shall be failing in my duties if I do not enlist my gratefulness to Dr. Yera Bhavalkar, a well-known Marathi writer on the problems of women. I am very much thankful to Prof. Paraki, Prof. N. G. Deshpande, Prof. A.D. Shinde, Prof. V. A. Kamble and all staff members of Smt. C. B. Shah Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Sangli for their encouragement and help.

I am also thankful to Sou. Lokur, and Shri Raste, who readily supplied me with reference books, whenever required. It is my duty to record my obligation to my father, my wife and my friend Devidas who patiently put up with me during my pre-occupation with this research work. At the end I have to express my thanks to Shri J. G. Tamhankar for his neat typing of the work.
