The present dissertation entitled " A Study of Labour Problems in Small Scale Industries" is the outcome of research undertaken as a part of the requirement of the Degree of Master of Philosophy in Commerce of Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

No words would suffice to express my deep sense of gratitude to my learned guide Dr.P.Subba Rao, Principal, Chhatrapati Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur without whose sustained encouragement and invaluable guidance, I could not have presented the dissertation in good time. His role will remain a source of enduring inspiration to me through out my life.

I am grateful to Prof A.D.Shinde, Director of Shahu Institute, Kolhapur for his encouragement during the period of writing this dissertation.

I express my heartfelt thanks to all these small entrepreneurs, workers, trade union leaders and industries officers whose willing co.operation enabled me to collect necessary data. I also owe my thanks to Divisional Manager, Bank of Maharashtra, Satara and the Director, District Industries Centre, Satara who provided me with invaluable sources of information for this study.

My gratitude is also due to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi for sanctioning a grant for completion of my M.Phil.Course and this dissertation work.

My special thanks are due^{to} Prof. S.N. Mane, Vice-Principal, Dhananjayrao Gadgil College of Commerce, Satara for his valuable co.operation and constant suggestions and Secretary, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha, Satara for allowing me to go on deputation for one year.

However, I alone assume the full responsibility for the conclusions, errors and omissions.
