I am blessed with an excellent guide in Dr. V.S. Mangnale, Head of the department of Economics. H.N. College of Commerce, Solapur and Ex-Dean, Faculty of Commerce, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. He has helped me a lot at every step. He kept the wheels moving in my mind by oiling it from time to time. Under his inspiring guidance and sagacious supervision, I have completed this dissertation. I express my profound gratitude.

I thank Dr. V.A. Dolas, Principal, H.N. College of Commerce, Solapur. His encouragement and co-operation proved a lot.

I am grateful to all those workers who talked to me with much needed frankness. They are really a whole life of this dissertation.

I also thank the concerned authorities of the two organisations, Jamshri Mill and Narsingiriji Mill, who allowed me to have an access to valuable information.
