

SYNOPSIS

The entire study is presented in six chapters as follows:-

CHAPTER - I :- ALL ABOUT THE STUDY

This chapter outlines -

- a) Introduction of the study.
- b) Title of study.
- c) Objective of the study.
- d) Methodology of the study.
- e) Limitation of the study.
- f) Chapter scheme.

CHAPTER - II : SMALL-SCALE INDUSTRIES - A PROFILE

- a) Introduction
- b) Definition & Structural features.
- c) Role of S.S.I. in Indian Economy.
- d) Problem of S.S.I.

CHAPTER - III : A PROFILE OF DISTRICT - SATARA.

- a) Introduction.
- b) Geographical background.
- c) Population.
- d) Educational background
- e) Banking Trade, commerce & co-operation.
- f) Industry.

CHAPTER - IV : LABOUR WELFARE - THEORITICAL FRAME WORK.

- a) Meaing
- b) Definition
- c) Scope.

- d) Concept
- e) Importance.
- f) Objective.
- g) Classification
- h) Principles.
- i) Theory.
- j) Labour welfare officer.

CHAPTER - V : This chapter deals with classification of small-scale industries in Satara M.I.D.C. (10) ten units selected for study according to their capital investment, status, employment and category of workers. It also reviews the labour welfare facilities faced by small-scale industries. Satara M.I.D.C. (10) ten units are also discussed in this chapter.

CHAPTER - VI : In the concluding chapter observations of the study are noted and suggestions are made thereof.

#####