

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words are really inadequate to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Babu Thomas, my Research Guide for this project. Without his constant encouragement, valuable guidance, and criticism too, I could never have presented this Dissertation in good time. I am truly indebted to him.

I wish to put on record my grateful thanks to Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director, Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur, for providing me with all the facilities to carry out this study.

My heartiest thanks to Dr. P. S. Rao, Principal of the Institute, initially for his suggestions in selecting the topic of this Dissertation and later on, continued interest in my progress until the Dissertation was complete.

I am indeed obliged to Shri. Ram Menon, Director, Menon Pistons Pvt. Ltd., Kolhapur, for granting me the permission to collect the required data from his organization; and I especially mention Shri. M. H. Patwardhan, Personnel Manager of the Organization, for sparing his valuable time for me in spite of his busy schedule whenever I called on him to clear even some minor point.

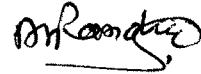

I also thank my sample respondents who patiently suffered my intrusion on their time and all along extended their most cordial co-operation to me.

I have to express my sincere thanks to Profs. V.S.Patil and V.K.Tiwatane of K.M.C.College, Kolhapur; and Shri.S.K.Desai of USIC, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for their valuable co-operation from time to time during my research work.

Finally, I thank Shri.Avinash Kurne for his secretarial help and the meticulous care he put in while preparing the final typewritten copy of the Dissertation.
