

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In this research work, I have been greatly benefitted by my visits to The District Industries Centre, Sangli and Banks into this research area. I got the opportunity of studying the various schemes for educated unemployed. This gave me an insight into the problems of educated unemployed and credit which have been faced in all the areas and sectors of economy.

In the completion of this work, I owe a debt of gratitude to my guide, Prof.Dr.C.S.Shetti (Shresthi), without his guidance, help and encluragement, this would have hardly been completed. I have great pleasure in acknowledging my profound gratitude to him.

I am also thankful to Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director, Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur for his valuable support and guidance.

I am also acknowledging my deep sense of gratitude to Prin.Dr. P. S. Rao, Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur for kind - cooperation through out the period of my M.Phil. Course.

My heartfelt gratitudes are to my teacher, Prof. Sou. V. V. Upadhye, who has always encouraged me for higher achievements in my life.

I am thankful to Shri. G. M. Gujar, General Manager and Shri. C. K. Kulkarni, Industry Inspector, Dist Industries Centre, Sangli for their assistance in completion of the data.

I am also thankful to the Branch Managers and Staff of the Bank of India, The Sangli Bank Ltd., State Bank of India, Bank of Maharashtra in my research area for providing me necessary data and other information.

I am also thankful to all the entrepreneurs in my research area who have given me free responses.

I am also thankful to the Librarians and Staff of the Libraries of Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur for the library facilities provided by them.

Finally, I must mention thanks towards Yashashri Tanklekhani Seva, 9th Lane, Rajarampuri, Kolhapur, for their neat and timely typing of this work.

KOLHAPUR.

(B. W. Mali)

26-1-1987