The present dissertation entitled "Deductions from Income from Business or Profession - Critical examination in the light of Supreme Court Decisions" is the outcome of research undertaken as the part of the requirement of the degree of the Master of Philosophy in Commerce and Management of Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

It is a pleasure for me to acknowledge here the assistance extended by various persons in the completion of my study. I am indebted to my learned Guide, Prof. P.G. Kulkarni, Reader, Chhatrapati Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur, without whose sustained encouragement and invaluable guidance, I could not have presented the dissertation in good time.

I am grateful to Prof. A.D. Shinde, Director of Chh. Shahu Institute, Kolhapur and Prof. T.A. Shiware, Dean of Commerce Faculty, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for their encouragement and co-operation during the period of writing this dissertation.

I am also grateful to Prin. M.G. Patkar, D.R. Mane College, Kagal, Shri Y.D. Mane, Secretary, Kagal Education Society and Dr. S.A. Patil, Physics Department, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for guidance and co-operation during the period of writing this dissertation.

I am very much grateful to my uncle Shri Kumar Shiradwade for his encouragement during the period of writing this dissertation.

I am also thankful to my colleague Shri N.B. Bhagwat and my friend Shri Murugundi A.M. who helped me from time to time in completion of my study.

I am also thankful to Shri S.M. Patil who has given me the best type-writing facilities.
