

C O N T E N T S

| CHAPTER NO. | TITLE | PAGE NO. |
|----------------|---|-------------|
| | * DECLARATION | |
| | * CERTIFICATE | |
| | * ACKNOWLEDGEMENT | |
| I | Introduction: Brief history of the Income-Tax Act, 1961 - Computation of income under the head 'Income from business, profession and vocation' - Scope of the income under the head 'Business and Profession'. | 1 to 19 |
| II | The nature of various deductions, brief comments thereon - the significance of depreciation in general - depreciation from the view point of an accountant, an economist and significance thereof from the point of view of Income-Tax Act, 1961. | 20 to 35 |
| III | The relevant provisions relating to the Depreciation Allowance under the statute - the related Income-Tax Rules - the Schedules and the Appendix concerning the Allowance - Case law study. | 36 to 75 |
| IV | The legislative background of the Depreciation provisions - the amendments made from the time to time - the significance of the depreciations provisions. | 76 to 85 |
| V | The critical examination of statutory provisions under the Income-tax Act, 1961 and Companies Act, 1956. | 86 to 87 |
| VI | Observations and suggestions. | 88 to 89 |
| | * BIBLIOGRAPHY | |
