

APPENDIX—II

PROFESSIONALISM QUESTIONNAIRE

Dear Sir/Madam,

Here you will find some questions. There are five columns showing different degree of the statements ranging from to a large extent to absolutely not at all. Please put a tick mark (✓) against the column that you personally feel is right. The five-point scale is as below:

---

I	II	III	IV	V
To a large extent	To a Moderate extent	To a certain extent	Not at all	Absolutely not at all
(5)	(4)	(3)	(2)	(1)

---

1. The business of this organisation can be managed by the professional people more effectively than those of non-professional.

(5)                      (4)                      (3)                      (2)                      (1)

2. Use of specialised experts and professionals is very essential to carry on the business more effectively.

(5)                      (4)                      (3)                      (2)                      (1)

3. New techniques of management is the part of a profession.
(5)                    (4)                    (3)                    (2)                    (1)
4. A professional manager can run the organisation better.
(5)                    (4)                    (3)                    (2)                    (1)
5. The public can be attracted through professionalisation of management, at large, to invest their savings in the form of capital.
(5)                    (4)                    (3)                    (2)                    (1)
6. The practical utility of the science of management can be enhanced by profession.
(5)                    (4)                    (3)                    (2)                    (1)
7. It is compulsory for this organisation to appoint the managerial persons being skilfull and trained.
(5)                    (4)                    (3)                    (2)                    (1)

oooooo E N D oooooo