" THE ROLE OF PRIMARY CREDIT CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETY IN RURAL DEVELOPMENT "

A CASE STUDY OF

" THE CHIKHALI VIVIDH KARYAKARI VIKAS SEVA SANSTHA MARYADIT, CHIKHALI."

2.2 OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY :

The study was undertaken with the following specific objectives.

- (1) To study the working pattern of a co-operative society working in rural area.
- (2) To undertake an assessment of the performance of "The Chikhali Vividh Karyakari Vikas Seva Sanstha Maryadit Chikhali," assuming the organisation as a representative sample of the credit co-operative society working in rural area of Maharashtra State.

- (3) To study the specific role played by the organisation in the rural development of the Village through its operations.
- (4) To suggests ways and means to overcome the weaknesses in the present working style of the society, if any.

2.3 METHODOLOGY OF THE STUDY :

The methodology adopted for the study is a survey method. For this purpose a suitable questionnaire was tailored to highlight the role played by the organisation under study in the process of rural development and was administered to the members of the society in the village Chikhali.

(Please seen annexure No.1.)

2.4 SELECTION OF THE SAMPLE :

At present society has total members out of this population 100 members are randemly selected for the purpose of the study. The convinience was the main criteria for selection of the sample. Agewise classification of the members selected for the study are as under :-

2.5 DATA COLLECTION :

For the study in hand both types of data were made use of -

(1) Primary Data :

The data is collected through a questionnaire developed for the purpose as already mentioned. The questionnaire was fed to the 100 respondents of the village by the researcher, personally. The respondents were kind enough to give positive response and their responses are analysed to chapter four of the study for highlighting societies contribution in the process of rural development.

(2) Secondary Data :

Secondary data is collected from the published sources like text books devoted to the subject Periodicals available in the libraries, Reports and news papers like Financial Express, Economic Times etc., for this purpose an extensive library research was undertaken in the following libraries. -

1. LIBRARY OF CHH. SHAHU INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS EDUCATION AND RESEARCH, KOLHAPUR.
2. BALASAHEB KHARDEKAR LIBRARY OF SHIVAJI UNIVERSITY, KOLHAPUR.

2.6 THE SCOPE & THE LIMITATION OF THE STUDY :

The scope of the study is limited to six years right from 1984 to 1990. The performance of the society is studied for this period only, but in case of the responses received most of the information is related to the concern year and most of the figure were the estimates made by the respondents which may be consider as major limitation of the study.

As the society is understaffed and the staff is overburdened in the work, under such circumstances getting their time for discussions and rediscussion was a problem and this has also affected on the quality of the work.
