

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I express my immense gratitude towards Prof. Dr. A. D. Shinde, my Research Guide, and Director, Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education & Research, Kolhapur, for his heartiest cooperation and encouragement in guiding this research work.

I am also deeply obliged to Dr. P. G. Kulkarni, Reader in Taxation at the Institute, for his valued cooperation by taking the time out of his busy schedule.

I also record my sincere thanks towards Prof. Dr. P. S. Rao, Principal of the Institute, and Dr. T. A. Shiware, Reader in Commerce, for their cooperation in providing me the necessary facilities for completing this research investigation.

I specially mention Dr. V. V. Khanzode, Dr. C. S. Shreshthi, Dr. Babu Thomas and Dr. R. D. Biradar for their guidance and cooperation from time to time.

I remember with gratitude my friends S/Shri. H. Pandurang, Umesh Arahunas, S. N. Pattanshetti, Rajshekhar, G. L. and M. N. Kaddipudi, D. T. Patil for their kind cooperation and encouragement during the course of my study. I am also grateful to my Swamy Building friends S/Shri. R. R. Chinchane, Vithal Pol, M. B. Patil, Sanjay Desai, Prakash, Shankar and others for their cooperation during my stay in Kolhapur.

It is rather difficult to find adequate words to acknowledge the love and affection I have received from my dear brothers and sisters, without whose help and encouragement, I would not have been able to join and complete the M.Phil.course.

Finally, I thank all those people without whose direct and indirect help, this Dissertation would not have been possible.
