

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have no ample words to express my deep sense of feelings to my beloved teacher and M. Phil. research guide Dr. R. D. Biradar, for his extensively stimulating guidance and inspiring suggestions throughout the course of this study. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude.

I express my thanks to Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director, and Dr. P. S. Rao, Principal of Chh. Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research, Kolhapur, for having given me an opportunity to undergo my M. Phil. study. I am also thankful to the teaching and non-teaching staff of this institute for their kind and timely co-operation during my stay here.

I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to the University Grant Commission for granting me the Teacher Fellowship without which this work would not be possible.

My heartfelt thanks are also due to the Board of Management K. L. E. Society, Belgaum, and Shri S. B. Lalsanghi, M. Sc., Principal, S. S. M. S. College, Athani for deputing me under the F. I. P. Scheme.

I am also grateful to Shri D. S. Revangouda, B. Sc., the Secretary, A. P. M. C., Athani for giving me invaluable information. My thanks are due to Shri P. V. Roge, Manager, T. A. P. C. M. S. Ltd., Athani for his valuable suggestions and his response during this survey. I express my hearty gratitude to Shri V. S. Huddar, M. Sc., Assistant Agricultural Officer and Assistant Director of Agricultural office, Athani, for giving me various important information and sharing different crucial documents relevant to the present study.

I thank Shri K. K. Joshi, Progressive Assistant, Block Development Office, Athani, Shri R. B. Banashankari, Statistical Assistant, Tahasildar Office, Athani, and Shri S. P. Lonar, Warehouse Manager, State Warehouse, Athani for their timely help and co-operation.

Last, but not the least, I am deeply appreciative of the help rendered by my wife, family members and friends who always stood firm behind me and encouraged in undergoing the pleasures and pains for completing my dissertation work.
