Sawant of Department of Electronics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and Mr. Takale of The New College, Kolhapur that they provide expert's opinion and interpretations of the sample data analysis.

This work would not have been successfully completed without the homely support of my colleagues and sustained interest of my students in the Department of Computer Science, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. I thank them.

Indeed I have no words to express my heartfelt gratitude to my family, the Bhosales and the Patils and my extended family—my neighbors, Dr. Archana Kamble and Dr. R. M. Kamble. I will be failing in my duties if I did not mention their kindness, affection and blessings towards me. And how can I forget my kids Mohit and Ritika for the maturity they shown? Always they tried to be cooperative while I was lost in the work, provided rich entertainment that kept my enthusiasm elevated.

Finally I can not resist myself in extending thanks to those who have been directly or indirectly contributed in one or the other form in the completion of this work.
