

LIST OF TABLES

- 2.1 Growth in the number of warehouse centres served by the Central Warehousing Corporation
- 2.2 Regional dispersal of the warehouses of the Central Warehousing Corporation (31st March 1987)
- 2.3 Dates of establishment of the SWCs in India
- 2.4 Warehousing capacity of the SWCs in India (1987-88)
- 3.1 Capital structure of the Maharashtra State Warehousing Corporation
- 3.2 Storage capacity with the Maharashtra State Warehousing Corporation
- 3.3 Utilisation of the storage capacity available with the MSWC
- 3.4 Depositorwise utilisation of storage capacity of the MSWC
- 3.5 Commoditywise break-up of the utilisation of storage capacity of the MSWC
- 3.6 Cost of storage
- 4.1 Growth in co-operative storage capacity under NCDC-II and NCDC-III in India
- 4.2 Number of godowns in co-operatives and their capacity
- 4.3 Storage capacity per godown

- 5.1 Districtwise existing storage capacity available with the APMCs (31-3-1985)
- 5.2 Frequency distribution of the districts having storage facility in the APMCs
- 5.3 Storage facility available within principal market yards of the APMCs (1987-88)
- 5.4 Utilisation of storage capacity of the APMCs
- 5.5 Chronological details of important developments in Shahu Market Yard, Kolhapur

LIST OF GRAPHS

1. Number of warehousing centres and storage capacity with the 'MSWC'
2. Availability and utilisation of storage capacity of the 'MSWC'
3. Average utilisation of 'MSWC' warehouse facility - depositorwise break-up (1976-77 to 1988-89 average)
4. Average utilisation of 'MSWC' warehouse facility - commoditywise break-up (1976-77 to 1988-89 average)