The present work is a M.Phil. research dissertation. This study is based on a sample survey of immigrant labour in selected brick-making villages of Sangli District. We have tried mainly to find out - a) realities regarding the extent, pattern and causes of migration and (b) present socio-economic conditions of immigrant labour. I express my gratitude to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi and Shivaji University, Kolhapur for the award of teacher fellowship which enabled me to take study leave from my job and complete the M.Phil. Course. I express my gratitude to Prin. K.R. Chhapkhane and the Management of Chintamanrao College of Commerce, Sangli for their generosity in permitting me to accept the U.G.C. Teacher Fellowship and granting me the necessary study leave for one year. I owe special gratitude to Dr. J.F. Patil, Reader, Department of Economics, Shivaji University, my research guide. I am immensely indebted to him for his keen interest and guidance in this study. I shall never be able to repay the kindness and encouragement that I have been receiving from him ever since I become fortunate enough to be his student.

I am also sincerely grateful to Dr. V.B. Ghuge, Head, and Professor of Economics, Department, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his kind encouragement in this work. I sincerely thank the other teachers in the Department of Economics for their suggestions and help at various stages of the M.Phil. course.

I am thankful to the Librarian and the staff of the Shivaji University, Kolhapur who made available to me all the necessary facilities in the library. I am also thankful to Shri Dhavale and his colleagues of the library of Chintamanrao College of Commerce, Sangli and librarian of Chhatrapati Shahu Institute of Management and Research for their prompt assistance. I am also thankful to my respondents and the primary teachers S/Shri Shinde and Patil, Primary School, Ankali for their active cooperation in my field work. I am thankful to S/Shri Choudhari and Sutar, Gramsevaksof Haripur and Ankali Grampanchayats for their cooperation in my field work. I ^{am} sincerely thankful to Shri Kawade who prepared the typescript neatly and in time. I am also thankful to Shri Killedar for preparing rough type scripts. I am also thankful to Shri Jagtap, H.M., Cartographer, Department of Geography, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for the excellent graphs and maps drawn for this study.

My wife, Lata, gave me tremendous help in the tabulation of data and necessary statistical computations. I must thank her for endurance and affection.
