This dissertation is the result of the guidance, the encouragement given to me and troubles taken to assist me in every possible way by many a people and I want to express my gratitude towards them.

First and foremost, I express my profound gratitude to my research guide, Prof. N.S. Ambardekar, without whose guidance I would not have been able to complete this work.

I also express my deepest gratitude to Dr. R.R. Doshi, Head, Department of Economics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, whose kind encouragement and timely advice helped me tremendously. I thank Principal Shri. S.S. Bodas, Willingdon College, Sangli.

I can not move forward without expressing my gratitude to Prof. D.H. Kulkarni and my uncle Shri S.A. Joshi.

I acknowledge the whole hearted co-operation extended to me by the staff of Regional Deputy Directorate of Sugar, Kolhapur and the office bearers of various sugar co-operatives in the Sangli district.

Last but not the least, I thank Mr. Y.S. Raste, Librarian, Willingdon College, Sangli and the Librarian and Asst. Librarian of Shivaaji University, Kolhapur.

I thank Mr. Pravin Kulkarni and Marathe
Computers for their expert and able Computer typing.

Miss. A.S. Kulkarni.
