

PREFACE

The researcher is very happy to present this dissertation " A study of use of audio-visual aids in the secondary schools in Satara taluka. "

The present study highlights the plus points as well as lacunas of the use of audio-visual aids in teaching. On the one hand when it is the matter of satisfaction that the concept of Instructional technology which has been grossly under estimated as a mechanical approach to teaching and learning process, with the profound advancement in the field of Technology its application to education is inevitable, on the other hand it is matter of concern that the teaching-learning is increasing in the use of audio-visual aids and other communication media.

The first chapter of this study introduces the approach to the problem, statement of the problem, need and importance of the study, objectives, hypotheses, delimitations of the study and definitions of the terms used. Chapter second gives the review of related literature of the some studies. The third chapter deals with historical development, need and importance of audio-visual aids, concept, classification and clarification of audio-visual aids. Chapter fourth reveals the methodology of the study. The fifth chapter includes the collection of data, their analysis and interpretation. Chapter sixth deals with summary of the study, conclusions, recommendations and topics for the further study. Lastly, appendices and bibliography of the books and documentary are given.

The study is presented to Shivaji University, Kolhapur in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of M. Phil. in education through the Principal, Azad College of Education, Satara under the guidance of Dr. B.A. Kolape.

The Researcher