

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am quite fortunate to complete the M.phil course in the well-known Department of Education, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. First and foremost, I am deeply indebted to my guide Dr. A.J.Yadav for his scholarly guidance and supervision, which has encouraged me to develop better insight into the subject of my dissertation.

I owe the debt of Dr. M.S. Padmini (Head) and Dr. C.M. Yeole (Reader) for providing all the necessary facilities, constant guidance and encouragement in completion of this dissertation and the total M.phil course. I also express my gratitude to Dr. N.R. Sapre and Dr.G. S.patil for continuous motivation throughout the course.

Thanks are also due to the Principal, K.H.College, who had kindly cooperated by allowing me to administer the experiment and to collect the data. I am immensely thankful to the Principal Dr. Anand Waskar and my colleagues Shri V.N.Bhandare, Dr. Puspha Waskar, Shri M.G.Jagtap, Shri J.K.Bhosale, Shashikant Chavan and Dr. A.D. Kumbhar who had helped me directly or indirectly in the process of this work.

I am deeply grateful to the Librarian, Barr. Khardekar library (SUK), librarian Shri B.G.Surve (AJCE), librarian Shri S.P.Dinde, Parulekar library. I am very much thankful to all my family members for their support at every stage of this work, without which the completion of this work would not been possible. Finally the credit goes to P & P Technologies, Gargoti for the meticulous typing of this dissertation.
