

LIST OF GRAPHS

Graph No.	Titles	Page No.
4.1	Number and percentage of teachers who says there is sufficient references of women.	71
4.2	Number and percentage of teachers who decide learning experiences related to Gender Representation.	73
4.3	Number and percentage of teachers who says that textbook have lessons showing interior position of women	74
4.4	Number and percentage of teachers who saysthat the lesson showing inferior position of women can be improved.	76
4.5	Number and percentage of teacher who find lesson having women references but not reflect in pictures property	77
4.6	Number of percentage of teachers who says that picture do not properly reflect women can be improved	79
4.7	Number and percentage of teachers who says less questions are asked about women.	81
4.8	Number and percentage of teachers who find discrimination as per capability of women in exercise.	82
4.9	Number and percentage of teachers who take help of handbook to guide Gender Representation.	84
4.10	Number and percentage of teachers who find more references of men than women in content	88
4.11	Number and percentage of teachers who find less references of women in content.	89
4.12	Number of percentage of teachers who find that there is content in the textbooks which shows male dominance.	91
4.13	Number and percentage of teachers who says lesson help to present women's modern image in society.	92

Graph No.	Titles	Page No.
4.14	Number and percentage of teachers who says textbook present women's traditional image.	94
4.15	Number and percentage of teachers who says that there are lessons written by women authors.	95
4.16	Number and percentage of teachers who expect that change in content which schools Gender Representation.	98