

A C K N O W L E D G M E N T

I am gratuitously indebted to Dr. R. V. Bhonsle, Hon. Professor, Department of Physics and Electronics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his valuable guidance, stimulating discussion and constant encouragement that I received through the present work. I express my sincere thanks to Dr. K. L. Narayana Professor and Head of the Department of Physics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for encouragement and making available all possible facilities in the department.

I wish to express my debt of gratitude to Dr. A. S. Vaingan-kar Reader, Department of Physics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for his help and inspiration at every stage in the progress of my work.

I am thankful to Director, IIG, Bombay, Prof. R. N. Patil and Dr. C. S. Shalgaonkar for procuring the Ionosonde.

I am obliged to my colleagues of Department of Physics and Electronics, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for providing the harmonious atmosphere which is of utmost necessity for being creative.

Last, but not least I am obliged to my family, no words are enough to express my heartiest gratitude to my parents and my wife Mrs. Varsha without whose active encouragement this dissertation would have never seen the light of the day.

Also feel grateful to Shivaji University authorities for providing facilities to work in Physics Department.
