

APPENDIX

The full contexts in which if-conditionals occur deviantly in the data.

Category A (Press: Reportage)

It is reflective of the changed moods of the realisation on both sides that the good of their peoples lies in co-operation and that if mutual conflict had proved futile in the past it is unlikely to be rewarding in the future.

1370 A01

If Pakistan though during the previous regime was able to mend its fences with Afghanistan and India had succeeded in starting out the intractable Farakka problem with Bangala Desh, Indo-Pakistan relations, despite their savoury nature, could not have remained insulated from this process.

1530 A01

If the same were to hold true for Cricketers vis-a-vis their firms, then purpose of the 'Times' Shield will have been served.

0790 A08

If a vacancy occurs in the 196-member Parliament the party or the group which had the representation in Parliament could nominate another of its party member.

1580 A15

There may have been major shortfalls in expenditure in the first nine months of the financial year. If this shortfall is made up in a substantial measure in the last quarter, there could be a very steep rise in the budgetary deficit.

0380 A17

But if the Indian Hockey Federation agrees to forgive and forget the misdemeanours of the three trouble makers, who like Don Quixote titled their lances at the wind mills of their imaginary slight against the Sikh community, and also revise the decisions they have mistakenly taken that all but Phillips of the Montreal Brigade could be dispensed with, the Indian side could be given a look of class.

0140 A20

But of course his return can only be possible if he tenders an apology for his walk-out from the Patiala camp.

0210 A20

In the circumstances another of the naughty trio Baldev could be recalled if he also apologizes.

0560 A20

The Government is the biggest exploiter of labour in prisons, if prison industries are run on proper lines, if expertise is obtained from private sector, and if there is collaboration between private sector and prison industries, like America, and prison factories become ancillaries, the tax payer would be saved from any burden of prisons.

1150 A24

A number of writers have stated that if both the partners felt the same way about the issues, there would probably have been no bones of contention in their lives.

0630 A25

A question that should be asked here is that if an organization like State Bank of India can assist the slum-dwellers in the above fashion, why it should not be possible for the other commercial bank's office.

0840 A39

It is true that if the programme has organizational flexibility and relevance of the content and methods with the felt needs and problems of the learners, it would fulfil the pre-conditions.

0940 A40

Category B (Press: Editorial)

If the communists do not give up their demand for participation, he would advise the president to order a new general election.

1490 B01

It could grow much faster if goods could be moved overland through Pakistan.

0170 B05

If anyone thinks that by the Government running the sugarmills the consumer could get "sugar cheap", he would be mistaken.

1190 B09

If one were to search for such 'revolutionary achievements' one can find them in abundance in any society.

0560 B11

If an equation were to be established between demand and installed capacity, there would have been no case for increasing total capacity at the rate Mr. Ramchandran himself has been advocating for months.

0310 B12

If only Mr. Nadkarni had interviewed the director and the screen play writer on the basis of his (Nadkarni's) extensive knowledge as to why they made the departures as why they suppressed the "bottle" part of the story, then that could have been a contribution to an understanding of fact and fiction, art and reality, an autobiography and a feature film.

1190 B16

Surely he has wasted his time and money, (the latter, if his two visits to the region were undertaken at his own expense) if he has not understood the immediate problem of the people of Marathwada.

1540 B17

If political parties be required to maintain proper books either they will have to keep election expenses within the legal ceiling or desist from using black money for promoting their political interests. 0380 B20

If the two countries could gain so much from bilateral action how much more could be had from multilateral action, the neighbours are likely to ask themselves. 0740 B20

It may be all right so long as quarrels are 'uncorporal'. But if they are fought bodyline style, it is havoc and devastation. 1560 B22

If reservations are made on the basis of caste and communities, we are making a permanent division among our own people. 0660 B23

Chief Minister Devraj Urs has even thought aloud of levying punitive fines if the enforcement of existing laws has not proved very effective. 0380 B26

Category C (Press: Review)

The point he stresses is that so many people in the city and the villages (including audiences in the heart of Naxalite territory) would not have seen it without any kind of protest if it was really pornographic. 1130 C06

If President Carter's visit acts as a stimulus to narrowing the media communication gap between India and the U.S.A., it would have at least one major achievement to its credit. 0900 C09

If it was the author's intention to focus on the massacre and the conspiracy behind it, he should have to extend the imagery of photography a little further.

1370 C13

Here is an actress, who, if moulded on correct lines, could mature into a sensitive artist.

0420 C15

Category D (Religion)

If one is conscious of his self at all times, even when doing so many things, then what else is mediation?

1000 D02

In a crowd, even if several persons may pass by and see us, we may be quite obvious of any one of them unless we intend to know who passes by us.

0150 D10

Every man is God, if he but realized it, not the weak puling Jiva as he mistakenly thinks himself to be

0750 D15

The message came home loud and clear during the Congress that Zorostrrianism would have to once again become a living faith for its followers if it and they is to survive.

1160 D17

As fiery Khojaste Mistree pointed out Christianity, Islam, Hinduism wouldn't be in business if they don't have religious scholarship.

0210 E37

It is obvious that, if a capital intensive and high mechanised High-yield technology is introduced, there could be an adverse impact on the employment of agricultural labour.

0550 E37

If, however, an appropriate technology is introduced, there could be greater opportunities for gainful employment on account of the following three factors; (A) the crop itself will need intensive care involving, weeding, manuring, irrigation and pest control; (B) multiple cropping involving the cultivation of 2 to 3 crops in a year may be possible; and (C) increased production will necessitate greater attention to post-harvest technology.

0580 E37

Category F (Popular lore)

If these powers could be persuaded to exercise their influence upon the South African Government, a reversal in the attitude of that Government vis-a-vis the problem of South West Africa could be expected.

0130 F02

Realizing that South Africa was deficient in respect of certain indispensable commodities like petroleum and petroleum products which she was compelled to import from abroad at a considerable cost, Member States who had sponsored Resolution 1899 (=18) in the General Assembly thought - and rightly so - that if the imports of those commodities could be stopped, South Africa might not be able to offer resistance for a long time.

0330 F02

If collective action should prove impossible because of a Veto in the Security Council, then under the "Uniting for Peace" resolution the matter would stand transferred to the General Assembly, where it would be subject to the conciliation procedure of Chapter-6.

1620 F03

If the money from excise was used for two or three years for good housing, it would have improved social conditions much more than any attempt to stop the drinking habit by law.

0940 F04

And they would not hesitate to modify, change or altogether discard the political system if it fails to measure up to the imperatives of social progress.

1280 F05

The monetary difficulties could be solved, I believe, if the petitioner (husband) would transfer to the respondent (wife) the Kindersley property together with one of his quarter sections of land.

1150 F07

A copy of this guideline should still be available in the project file of the ICHR and, if it is published by the Government, it would at once remove the suspicion that several people have expressed subsequently that this project was intended to eulogize and pay tribute to Mrs Gandhi and her family.

0350 F08

If the States have to implement welfare schemes they should be provided with the wherewithal or enabled to raise resources.

1160 F09

1870 F20

If there were any assumptions at the start of the experiment, have they found to be valid? If there were any promises implicit in it, to what extent have they been fulfilled or belied?

0090 F21

If it is to be judged on the basis of the number of organizations which have come into existence directly or mainly as a result of CSWBS support and which continue to serve largely with CSWBS aid, the answer is positive.

0320 F21

The voluntary organizations are assisted if they are national in character, and if their functions are of national character.

1000 F22

If something similar was attempted by Napoleon in Algiers or by Czar in Russia, they would be loudly denounced for tyranny.

0210 F23

Since economic and moral salvation of India rested with them, the patriotic would refuse to adorn herself for men including her husband, if she will be an equal partner with men.

1600 F29

Apart from this, if we cast a glance at the unrefined religious idea and practices of primitive man we find that this was more often a compulsive or exciting, than of a pleasure yielding or wish-fulfilling nature, a driving pressure reaching up from the depths of the primitive mind.

0800 F31

If a weak sperm gets in, the result could be defective baby.

1280 F32

It is now a well known fact that if a normal person takes cinchona or its allied drug, an attack of malaria is prevented and if it occurs, it is in a mild form.

1730 F33

If the previous evening his favourite team has lost the match against a Punjab team, he beats up his children for no reason and does not take his dinner.

1230 F35

Here too, if this evolution is to take place, since it must proceed through a growth of the spirit and the inner consciousness, the initiative can come from India and, although the scope must be universal, the central movement may be hers.

0770 G01

If India is an agrarian appendage, there would be no prospect for the development of class struggle.

0800 G16

It would be somewhat bizare, if political events take place outside the framework.

0720 G19

If the English novelist, Charles Dickens, were to write a novel on "A tale of one city," that is Ahmedabad, its first sentence might very well be, "It had the best of institutions, it had the worst of institutions."

0010 G21

Hindi is still not a homogeneous language, it arrogates forty per cent of the population to itself only if some extremely peculiar dialects are included in it.

1320 G22

If the press were to publish only Government handouts or official statements, to which it has been reduced today, who will pin point lapses, deficiencies or mistakes?

1380 G29

It is characteristic of the man who never stayed in any office for more than three years running, that he now feels presidentship is not his destiny. And if you ask him for an answer he himself would not know or would not like to tell you.

0260 G32

You will wonder why it should be, if this maiden was so beautiful, that I should be left without a rival.

1760 G34

I do not remember what the inside of a frog looks like now but, even if I did, it would have been of no use to me.

0170 G59

If he would come to know that the officer had recorded on file the message he had received from him, he would have him transferred to an unimportant post.

0900 G61

If art has been reduced to a profession like others the question would have no importance, for then its validity would be determined by its function.

1110 G64

But if the Syndicate wished to pursue its own line of reasoning, it could have challenged Saran's version of the antecedent circumstances and it could have forced a showdown on the question of procedural propriety.

1760 G65

But if such distinction cannot be made at the empirical level, it would have a further implication: the two hypotheses are really isomorphic, equivalent in all respects, and it is merely a question of changing over from one idiom to another.
