

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted to my research guide, Dr. Mrs. S. P. Chavan, Head of the Department of English, Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Satara, whose kind and helpful guidance and encouragement made this study possible.

I owe a special debt to the Principal, Shri. Arun Barge, Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Satara.

I also owe a special debt to honourable Dr. C. D. Narasimhaiah, whose extensive library at Dhvanyaloka, Mysore provided maximum material for my study, and to the Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages, Hyderabad.

I also thank Prof. Christopher John de Wet, Department of Anthropology, Rhodes University, South Africa for developing my interest in general portrayal of childhood in South Africa. My thanks are also due to Dr. P. B. Chavan, Dr. Mrs. Shobhana Bhondwe, Dr. Shridhar Gokhale, Prof. Vishnu Salunkhe, Prof. Khurshid Attar, Prof. Anisa Mujawar for extending every possible help.

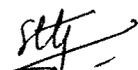

I thank the librarians of the British Council Library, Pune branch, Jaikar Library, Pune, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Banglore University Library, Chh. Shivaji College Library, Satara and Mumbai University, Mumbai for their kind assistance and co-operation.

I owe my deepest sense of gratitude towards the Principal Shri. S. N. Kukale, Mamasahab Mohol College, Kotharud, Pune and the staff of the college. I am indebted to the Principal Lipare, Arts and Commerce College, Pusegaon, Satara.

I also owe my deepest sense of gratitude towards my parents and the members of my family as well as my sons.

I dedicate my work to the loving memory of my husband Late Shri. Tanaji Bacharam Ghodake, who died on 28th January, 2000 when the work was in progress. I owe everything I am, to his inspiration, guidance and co-operation.
