

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, Miss Tejaswini S. Jadhav, have completed my M.A. Degree in English and had an opportunity to study the Indian Classic Literature of Rabindranath Tagore, Sarojini Naidu and Shri Aurobindo, the wellknown figures in the Indian Literature. While studying this special issue I was heartily influenced by the present form of Indian Society and naturally it induced me to look at its every corner just with a view to have a better knowledge of the society in which I am growing up. The Indian Society as it stands today has its own facets. To study the entire system of Society in literature is no doubt an interesting job and so I thought and concentrated on study of "Human Relation and Relationship with Society, God and Nature". The references handled by me during the study on the issue attracted me to the great poets viz. A.K. Ramanujan and Jayanta Mahapatra from Karnataka and Orissa respectively. I was greatly influenced by the different styles of poetry and their typical Indianness and deep roots in Indian Culture.

This is a short study I am presenting for my M.Phil. study through Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

My study required number of references on the topic. The guidance to the books, presentation and other relevant aspects could reach to perfection only because of the valuable guidance rendered by Dr. J.A. Shinde, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. Any endeavour on my part to express my thanks to him would built a strong wall of indifference between me and him which definitely, I am afraid, will reflect on my relation created during the long span of study. I do not want to have that and hence, I only would be glad to be under the deep shadow of love of Dr. J.A. Shinde. <sup>What</sup> I owe to him is the only satisfaction to me.

The colourful exercise of study could be completed by me because of the full and personal guidance of Dr. C.J. Jahagirdar, Head of the Department of English, Shivaji University, Prof. B.N. Patil, Balasaheb Desai College, Patan, Prin. R.D. Rade, Kanya Mahavidyalaya, Islampur, and Shri N.G. Jadhav, Department of English, Balasaheb Desai College, Patan. Dr.P.B. Patil is one of those dignitaries who have equipped me with the basic books on the topic which were made available by him to me from Hyderabad. In the absence of, this, this study could have been rather incomplete. I express my gratitude to all these respected personalities.

I was encouraged by Dr. S.P. Jadhav, my beloved father and Mrs. Mandakini S. Jadhav, my beloved mother for completion of entire study. The soft hands of my beloved Papa and Mai are the encouraging moments of my life and so I submit my entire feelings of love, affection and everything to both of them without any utterance of the word 'Thanks'.

Thanks to all those who contributed to my study directly or indirectly.

T.S. Jadhav

(T.S. JADHAV)

KOLHAPUR.

Dated: 29th Dec. 1994.