

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my grateful thanks to my research guide - Dr. P.B. Deshpande, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for his able and valuable guidance, continued care and constant encouragement in completing this dissertation entitled 'A STUDY OF GRAHAM GREENE'S DETECTIVE NOVELS WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE POWER AND THE GLORY, A BURNT-OUT CASE AND THE HUMAN FACTOR'. I am very much thankful to Dr. S.K. Desai, Professor and Head, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. I am grateful to Mrs. Mokhtali for her co-operation in the documentation of this dissertation. It is my solemn duty to thank Principal A.B. Garud for allowing me to appear for M.Phil. I take an opportunity to thank the authorities of The British Council Library, Poona, The British Council Library, Bombay, and to the Librarians of Poona University and Bombay University who provided me exclusive library facilities due to which alone I could complete this work. I must thank Mr S.R. Fouzdar for taking me to The British Council Library at Bombay and Bombay University Library. I am grateful to Prof. P.T. Joseph for his co-operation at every stage in the progress of my dissertation. I am also thankful to Mrs Date, S.S. and Mrs Powar, M.S. for their encouragement, inspiration, valuable suggestions and help.

No words are enough to express my heartiest gratitude to my husband - Mr Anil Shikhare and daughter Chi. Gargi without whose co-operation and patience this work would have remained incomplete. I am very much grateful to my parents who constantly encouraged and inspired me during the course of my dissertation. I am profoundly grateful to my father, M.R. Naik for his expert, neat and careful typing. I also thank my friends - Mrs Padmaja Patil, Mr Thite, Mrs Ganapatye and Mrs Mujumdar.
