ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I feel satisfied while submitting this work of research " Physiological studies in Curcuma longa." In this prime task many have helped me since this effort of thanking them.

My guide Prof. Dr. N.A. Rajmane who is the main source of great help in this work, from choosing the topic to the last accomplishment of every experiment, he has guided me. Whenever and wherever I met with difficulties, I turned to him for help. He was ever-ready to help me. He never bothered about timings, his personal difficulties despite very little time at his disposal, was always willing to help me. So my real and sincere thanks to Prof. Dr. N.A. Rajmane.

The gigantic task of research, many references, latest literature, would not have been complete without the tremendous help, voluntarily offered by Prof. Dr. B.A. Karadge and Prof. Dr. P.D. Chavan of Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

I must also mention my gratitude to the late Principal Prof. Dr.B.A. Patil for his help till the time he was there.

How I can I forget the help given by Dr.H.K. Pawar of Agricultural University, Dapoli. He was so helpful to me that he made the notes and latest reference available to me, even after I can back to Sangli from Dapoli.

Dr.J.D. Patil of Krishi Vidyalaya, Digras deserves special mention since he made available literature and references on the topic of my research.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not mention the name of Dr.T.H. Shinde of Agricultural College, Pune.

My visit to ICRISAT and Dr. Pawar, Hyderabad has encouraged me in completing my work early.

My special thanks to Mr. R.K. Walvekar and family for encouraging and inspiring me all the time. They always helped me in my difficult times.

My sincere thanks to Prof. Phulari for some very good suggestions in presenting the work in proper manner.

My loving brother Mr. Sunil, Consulting Engineer for Bombay has spared his valuable time, energy and talent in making the graphs upto-date and attractive. Without the printing of graphs by him, my work would not have been presentable and complete.

I must thank Mr. Khambe, Mr. Tamhankar, Mr. Pawar for their help in certain matters of great importance.

I am thankful to Prof. S.M. Kulkarni and Dr. Magdum for their timely help.

I must thank my parents - my mummy and daddy - and all my family members for their kindly co-operation in my work.

My dearest friend Arundhati Walvekar is a part and parcel of my work as it is one body and one soul.

I must also thank Kunal Computer for their excellent printing work.

I must also offer my thanks to many known and unknown persons, who have helped me in my work but whose names might have slipped in this note of thanks. Once again I would thank all those who have helped me in completing this intricate work.
