

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation was undertaken under the guidance of Prof. Arun Bhosale, Head, Department of History, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. His advice and guidance has been of invaluable assistance in enriching the quality and neat presentation of the material by making the whole work in lucid and intelligible manner. I beg to acknowledge my sincere gratitude to appreciate the encouragement that I have been receiving from him from time to time.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to the 'Indian Council of Historical Research' for providing me a financial support for this research work.

It is a great pleasure for me to express my grateful sentiments and thanks to Dr. M. P. Patil, Dr. M. A. Lohar, Dr. (Smt.) N. D. Parekar, Dr.(Smt.) P. A. Patil, Mr. Avanish Patil and Dr.(Smt.) Kavita Patil for their cheerful encouragement, kind co-operation and valuable support.

I owe my personal debt of gratitude to D. M. Chaudhari, Santosh Jethethor, Aarti Kulkarni, Archana Jadhav, Krishna Patil, Ramchandra Kumbhar and Vandana Vhatkar for the inspiration, co-operation and affectionate encouragement given by them.

I heartily thankful to the Librarian and staff of Barr. Balasaheb Khardekar Library, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Government Archives, Shahaji Law College, Kolhapur and some other institutions of Kolhapur for making me available the library facilities.

I am thankful to the members of non-teaching staff of the Department of History, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for their kind co-operation.

I must express my heartiest feelings to my parents and the members of my family for sparing me to afford the higher education and research activities. Today I feel happy because the dream of my family members has been proved into trueism.

Last but not the least I am thankful to Mr. S. I. Shaikh for computerising this dissertation accurately.

Miss Vaishali Dagadu Kamble