ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Language is a means of communication to express one's own thought. However, sometimes the words fall short to express the feeling. Dr. Leela J. Bhosale is far more taller where the words cannot reach and personify their real sense of significance.

I am thankful to Dr. U.K.Kulkarni, Professor and Head of the Botany Department, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, who has enabled me to complete this work.

I deem it as my pleasant duty to offer my warmest regards to the authorities of Shri Swami Vivekanand Shikshan Sanstha, Kolhapur, Secretary Shri Duke, N.K., Principal Shri Amarsingh Rane, Principal Shri Valke, Principal Shri Abhayakumar Salunke, Principal Shri U.K.Deshmukh.

Thanks are due to Dr. Hegde, Department of Botany, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and Shri Marathe, Agriculture College, Kolhapur for extending their co-operation to complete this work.

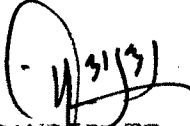

I could not have been able to complete this piece of work without the kind help from Miss Niranjana Mulik, Kolhapur for which I am thankful to her.

I must mention thanks to Dr. Lubdha Apte, Kolhapur and Shri A.R.Patil, Lecturer in Chemistry, A.C.S. College, Miraj.

I deem it as my pleasant duty to offer my warmest regards to Shri S.S.Sathe, Lecturer in Botany, A.C.S.College, Miraj, Shri Appa Kulkarni, Barsi and my colleagues.

I must also mention to love my parents and family throughout my educational carrier who have brought me up to the present status.

I am happy to record my thanks to Shri P.T.Patil, Kolhapur, for quick and neat typing of the manuscript.
