

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.	Title
1	Number of workers in the two mills
2	Classification of respondents by age.
3	Classification of the respondents according to their mother tongue.
4	Distribution of respondents by religion, and Distribution of respondents by caste.
5.1	Classification is made according to the language they can speak.
5.2	Classification is made according to the language they can write.
6	Classification of respondents according to their marital status.
7	Classification of respondents according to their family system (Joint/Separate)
8	Classification is made according to size of family.
9	Classification of respondents according to their locality(urban/rural).
10	Classification of the respondents according to their tenement.
11	Accommodation of respondents (own/rented/mills)
12	Nature of the house (slab/hut/tin)
13	Classification of the respondents according to the amenities.
14	Sources of getting news papers.
15	Classification of the workers about awareness of reading news papers.
16.1	Level of awareness about reading news papers.
16.2	The table showing the classification of the respondents who listen to radio news and view news on TV.
17	Table showing number of respondents who know the names of trade unions in the city.

Table No.	Title
18	Table showing No.of respondents who know and who do not know the minimum age limit required for voting.
19	Classification of the respondents according to their knowledge about political parties.
20	Knowledge about political party of the political leaders.
21	Table showing no. of respondents having the photographs of the political leaders in their houses.
22	Knowledge about political leaders.
23	Table showing no. of respondents who can name the Mayor of Solapur Municipal Corporation.
24	Table showing no.of respondents who can name the Chief Minister of Maharashtra State.
25	Knowledge of political figures from other countries.
26	Table showing the political system in India.
27	Table showing the no.of respondents who know and who do not know that the Indian constitution is written constitution.
28	Knowledge about National Language.
29	Table showing no.of respondents who know and who do not know (at present) which party has power at Centre, State and Local.
30	The respondents are classified according to knowledge of political parties.
31	The respondents are classified according to their answer whether various political parties are useful or not for development of the nation.
32	The respondents are classified according to their answer whether languages and boundary problems about constituent states are dangerous to the national integrity.
33	The respondents are classified according to their answer whether national integrity is essential.
34	The respondents are classified according to their answer as to which problems are dangerous to national integrity.
35.	The table showing the knowledge about minimum required age for voting and change made in it.

Table No.	Title
36	The respondents are classified according to their answer whether the strike, agitation, gherao are the concents of the political behaviour.
37	Table showing the knowledge about corruption on Indian politics.
38	Knowledge about Kashmir and Punjab Issue.
39	Knowledge about Mandal Commission Issue.
40	Knowledge about Ramjanmabhumi and Babari Mashid Issue.
41	Table showing number of respondents who attend the political meetings.
42	Classification of the respondents according to the political parties for which they have registered vote.
43	Table showing the classification of respondents who are the members of the political parties.
44	Classification of respondents who pay subscription for their political party.
45	Collecting donations for the political party.
46	The classification of the respondents according to the political party for which they have made propaganda
47.	Respondents who had written articles on politics.
48.	Respondents who have contested election for the directorship of the cooperative credit society.
49.	Respondents who have made propaganda for a candidate in the election.
50.	Respondents who contested in the general election.