

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On completing this dissertation, as I look back on the whole experience from its very inception, I feel humbled. All along I was assured of the presence of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, to whom goes all the honour and glory through whom I have been able to realise this dream.

At the outset, I would like to express my deep felt gratitude and indebtedness to my guide Dr. Cherian. P. Kurien, Principal, Yashwantrao Chavan Institute of Social Sciences, Satara, who was the primary source of inspiration into this venture. His unceasing encouragement, optimism, vast experience and commitment towards research has left a deep impression on me.

I thank Prof. A. D. Shinde, Director and Dr. P.S. Rao, Principal, Chhatrapati Shahu Central Institute of Business Education and Research Kolhapur, for their support. I am specially thankful to the Head of the Department of Social Work, Dr.A.D. Madgulkar and other staff for their kind co-operation.

I owe very much to Mr. Pavan Khebudkar, Principal, Chetana Vikas Mandir, Mrs. Swati Gokhale, Principal, Swayam Mathimand shala and Ms.Smita Kulkarni, Principal, Jignyasa School for the Handicapped, for enabling me to conduct the study on the families of the mentally retarded children who attended these specialized schools at Kolhapur. I am highly obliged to the families of the mentally retarded children, who formed the subjects for the study for their active co-operation despite my communication problem in fluent Marathi.

I am grateful to the authorities and staff of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay , National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences, Bangalore and Madras School of Social Work, Madras, for their kind assistance and Library facilities.

I am beholden to Mr. Laxman Mane, Member of Legislative Council, Government of Maharashtra and President of the All India Institute of Nomadic and Denotified Tribes, for his encouragement. Two of my colleagues of Yashwantrao Chavan Institute of Social Sciences, Satara; I would particularly like to thank are Mr. Vijay J.Mane and Mr. Sunil Jadhav who have helped me in every way they could. My sincere thanks are due to Mr. Babu Zachariah, Department of Statistics, SIBER, Kolhapur for his assistance and guidance in the analysis of data. I also record with thanks the efforts taken by Mr. Rajesh Duthie and Mr. A.J. Patil, Department of Computer Science, SIBER, Kolhapur, for the documentation work done on Computers.

I am greatly indebted to my friend Mrs. Sumitra Jadhav, Senior Assistant Librarian, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for making the necessary books and journals accessible to me.

Kolhapur has become my 'home away from home' due to the warmth and hospitality showed towards me by families like Hegistes, Ustads, Jadhavs, Babu

Zachariah's and Jacob Samuel's. I express my heartfelt gratitude to the Kolhapur Evangelical Students of India and Marthoma Church of Kolhapur for their prayers and support. The times I spent with all these families will remain cherished in my memories.

I am overwhelmed by the constant support, love and counsel given by my dearest friend Dr. Smrutika Patil; especially in moment of doubt and struggle. It has given me immense joy to know her, stay with her and gain knowledge from her research experience. At this juncture, I also appreciate her parents and brothers for their encouragement and indirect support at every stage of this research.

Last but not the least, I am at a loss of words, to convey my gratefulness, appreciation and warm regards to my father Mr. M. George and my mother Mrs. Saramma George who made it all possible! Their unfailing support, blessings and outpouring love has always been a source of inspiration and strength in accomplishing this academic task.
