

C O N T E N T S

	Page
CHAPTER-I : NATURE, ROLE AND IMPORTANCE	1-25
* Introduction	1
* Meaning and concept of communication	3
* Scope and Importance of communication	7
* Nature and characteristics of Mass Media	9
* Role of mass media	17
* References	23
CHAPTER- II: THE SETTING AND METHODOLOGY	27-55
* The setting of the study	30
* Theories in communication research	37
* Methodology in communication research	42
* Methodology of the present study	45
* References	52
CHAPTER- III: TABLES AND STATISTICAL ANALYSIS	56-116
* Characteristics of the respondents	56
* Attitudes/ behaviour Towards communication media	64
* Use of different communication media by respondents	74
* Respondents communication media exposure and its effects	81

	Page
CASE STUDY:
* No.1 Lower economic level, illiterate parents and media exposure	93
* No.2 Lower middle economic level, illiterate parents and media exposure	96
* No.3 Lower middle economic level, illiterate parents, media exposure and influence	99
* No.4 Higher economic level and exposure to mass media and its impact	103
* No.5 Lower middle economic level and media exposure	106
* No.6 Middle economic level, educated family and impact of mass media	108
* No.7 Economically higher middle class and mass media	111
* No.8 Economically higher class and attitudes and behaviour towards communication media	114
CHAPTER- IV: CONCLUSIONS	117
* Conclusions	117
* References	121
APPENDIX:
* Schedule in English	122
* Schedule in Marathi	127
* Bibliography	132